COLLAPSE OF WALL KILLS FOUR; MANY HURT

HIGH WIND CAUSES FALL OF WEST WALL OF M.A.C. BUILDING

Tons of Brick Crash Through a Four Story Building Occupied By St. Louis Seed Co.—Men at Work Clearing Debris are Ordered Out of Ruins Just in Time to Escape.

St. Louis, March 17.—The second disaster within a week today was wrought upon the scene of the Missouri Athletic club, whose building recently was destroyed by fire with a loss of thirty lives.

Carried down by a thirty mile wind the west wall of the ruins of the seven story club house this afternoon crashed down on to the adjoining building of the St. Louis Seed company and crushed the rear half of the four story building to the ground. At midnight the bodies of three dead men had been removed from the debris, the body of a woman still was believed to be buried under the wreckage, twelve persons were injured and several workmen who were in the building just before the collapse still were unaccounted for.

The Dead.

William Davidson, 35, laborer.

C. R. Gryder, carpenter, East St. Louis, Ill.

An unidentified man.

A few minutes before the collapse, Building Commissioner McKelvey, who was directing 170 men in the work of exploring the ruins of the Athletic club, feared the wall would fall and ordered his men out of the debris. This action probably prevented a heavy loss of life.

The four story building occupied by the St. Louis Seed company had weakened, apparently during the burning of the Missouri Athletic Club building which adjoined it on the east and when the brick wall crashed on the roof of the four story building, the walls of the latter gave way and all above the second floor crumbled.

Third Body Removed.

At 9 o'clock the third body, that of an unidentified laborer was taken from the ruins. At this hour the groans of a woman buried in the ruins ceased and it was believed she had died.

The List of Injured.

Miss May Mulrein, stenographer, shoulder dislocated, collar bone broken, back injured.

Miss Mildred Sunderman, office employe, abrasions on arms and on left hand.

Miss Hazel Sunderman, employe of seed company, arms and hands cut and bruised.

Henry Stattman, bookkeeper of the seed company, cuts and bruises.

Stephen Paulter, employe of the seed company.

Charles Thompson, laborer, contusions.

Morris Montgomery, 40, foreman construction company, fractured hip, bruises.

Joseph E. Schwartz, Mt. Vernon, Ill., bruised.

The body of a dead man was lying across the body of Mr. Cobb when the rescuers reached him. This man had been transfixed by a piece of scantling.

Amputation Unnecessary.

An aged man named Maloney or Maroney was found pinioned in the basement of the seed company building. He was badly injured and to take him out alive it seemed necessary to release him by amputating his leg. Physicians had injected morphine into the pinioned leg and were about to apply the knife when workmen succeeded in moving the debris slightly, thereby releasing him. The amputation was averted and the man was taken to the city dispensary.

In the seed company building at the time of the accident were ten or twelve customers, three women and five or six men, office employes and a large number of workmen engaged in repairing the building which had been damaged by the Missouri Athletic Club fire.

Illinois Men Escape.

Among the customers in the building at the time were George C. Ziebold of Waterloo, Illinois, and J. E. Schwartz, of Mt. Vernon, Ills.

Both ran out as the wall fell and escaped with minor bruises.

All the customers in the building are believed to have escaped with slight or no injuries.

The second body removed was identified as that of C. R. Gryder, a carpenter of East St. Louis, Ills., who was one of those repairing the building.

"MOTHER" JONES CONFERS WITH OFFICERS OF MINERS' UNION

DENVER, Colo., March 17.—"Mother" Mary Jones, 82 year old strike leader released by the military authorities yesterday spent today in consultation with officers of the United Mine Workers of America and with Horace N. Hawkins, her attorney. No announcement was made regarding her future movements further than a reiteration of the declaration that she would return to Trinidad before the end of the week.

No strike activity was reported in any part of the state during the day.

SHOOTING OF PARIS EDITOR STIRS PEOPLE OF FRANCE

Immediate Effect of Murder of Gaston Calmette is Tense Political Situation—Minster of Finance Resigns.

Paris, March 17.—Not since the Dreyfus affair has any event in French history so stirred the imagination of the French people as the shooting of Gaston Calmette, editor of Figaro by Mme. Caillaux, the wife of the minster of finance. The immediate effect is a tense political situation all the greater in view of the imminence of the elections. M. Caillaux broken in spirit, resigned from his post today and the cabinet was subjected to several changes. The lobbies are seething with all sorts of reports and the resignation of Ernest Monis, minster of marine and even the whole cabinet is rumored.

Among parliamentarians the whole affair is considered as a great and unexpected boon to the anti-Republican party who will not fail to exploit it to the utmost with the object of discrediting the government at the elections. Throughout the day large crowds assembled around the Caillaux residence, the Figaro office and Saint Lazare prison where Mme. Caillaux occupies a cell. For the most part the crowds were composed of curious spectators, although many rowdies circulated and attempted hostile demonstrations. The police, however, had no difficulty in handling them and many arrests were made. Late tonight the Royalists association was called out by Leon Daudet, the leader. He mounted a table outside a well known boulevard cafe and harangued his followers, attacking M. Caillaux in violent terms to the accompaniment of shouts of "down with the assassin Caillaux!"

M. Hennion, prefect of Paris in command of a large body of police harried the manifestants up and down the boulevard and finally scattered them, the Royalists fleeing with shouts of "down with the republic! Long live the king!" A score were arrested.

Earlier in the evening half a dozen mobs assembled in various parts of the city on the left bank of the Seine and endeavored to make their way toward the chamber of deputies. In every instance formidable battalions of police barred the streets and made short work of the mobs.

Mme. Caillaux was visited today by her husband, who spent nearly an hour in her company. She will be defended by M. Labori, the noted advocate. Henri Robert, considered the most celebrated lawyer in France was asked to defend Mme. Caillaux but refused on the ground that he was a close personal friends of M. Calmette.

PERFECT DISCIPLINE AND COOLNESS SAVES STUDENTS

Young Women Escape Without Injury When College Hall at Wellesley is Destroyed by Fire.

Wellesley, Mass., March 17.—Perfect discipline, coolness and bravery on the part of students and faculty members prevented any loss of life or injury when College Hall, the oldest of the Wellesley college buildings was burned today.

Two hundred and fifty women students, fifty instructors and fifty maids were in their beds when the fire was discovered. Everyone was saved and none of the scores who marched in an orderly procession through smoke filled hallways suffered so much as a scratch. The building was left a blackened shell by the flames. Within its crumbled walls was wreckage representing a loss of $900,000. Of this amount $100,000 was the estimated value of the personal property of the inmates, nearly all of whom left in scanty attire.

On account of the fire, the entire college was ordered closed until April 7th, the end of the regular Easter recess. Nearly 1,000 of the 1,300 young women had left for their homes tonight. Many who had rooms in College Hall went in borrowed clothing.

NATIONAL BALLOON RACE WILL BE SAILED FROM ST. LOUIS

Aero Club of America Awards Contest to Missouri City for July 4th.

New York, March 17.—The national balloon race for this year will be sailed from St. Louis July 4th. The Aero club of America awarded this contest tonight to the Aero club of St. Louis. The winner of this race and the pilot who finishes second will be two of the three aeronauts to represent the United States in the international race to start from Kansas City next October.

It was almost an eleventh hour decision which gave the national contest to St. Louis. Representatives of the Aero club in Portland, Ore., had looked forward to staging the start of this race and the Aero club in Oakland, Calif., also had bid for the race. A telegram of sanction was sent tonight to A. B. Lambert, vice president of the St. Louis club.

The board of governors of the Aero Club of America took into consideration the fact that St. Louis has had experience in holding national races; that it has the finest of facilities for a balloon flight, especially in furnishing gas and that the city is centrally located geographically.

The award was made notwithstanding that the St. Louis club offered only $2,000 in prizes and the aeronauts' expenses as compared with $3,000 and expenses by the Portland club and $3,500 and expenses by the Oakland club.

INTEREST OF WOMEN EXCEEDS EXPECTATION

WOMEN REGISTER THROUGHOUT STATE IN UNEXPECTED NUMBERS

Foes of Saloon Declare Unusual Interest Displayed Will Mean Substantial Addition to "Dry" Territory—10,000 Women Register in Springfield.

Springfield, Ill., March 17.—Marshalled by the anti-saloon forces, women in unexpected numbers registered today in downstate cities for the local option elections in April. The turnout in most municipalities exceeded optimistic estimates and foes of the saloon assert the unusual interest of the women will mean a substantial addition to prohibition territory in Illinois.

In this city fully 10,000 women registered and leaders in the campaign for a "dry" city are jubilant. At Danville the registration of women was 6,263, more than a thousand above the most sanguine estimate. In Rock Island the women outnumbered the men at the polls and at Moline 2,500 women added their names to the registration lists. In East St. Louis 2,700 women registered, a large number of them being negroes. At Peoria many women were prevented from registering by the methods of the judges of election, but they will be given another opportunity later in the month.

Young and Old at Polls.

Women with baby carriages, mothers with babies in arms, women young and old flocked to the polling places today to register for the local option election in Springfield April 7th, when they may also vote for members of the school board and for supervisors. So great was the rush of womon the election officials were swamped in several precincts and the women were forced to wait in line for a long time. Men supplied the waiting with chairs in some of the voting booths. Shortly before the polls closed at 9 o'clock tonight it was estimated by members of the election commission that an average of over 200 women had registered in each of the 41 precincts, or a total women's vote of approximately 8,000 or 9,000.

As over 12,000 men are registered the total vote in Springfield at the liquor election will exceed 20,000.

So great was the rush during the final hours tonight the total registration of women reached over 10,000.

"Dry" leaders contend this means "dry" Springfield.

More Women Than Men.

Chicago, March 17.—Sixty thousand, one hundred and nineteen women registered today in preparation for their first chance to use their newly granted suffrage at the aldermanic election April 7th. Their registration brought the total woman's voting strength up to 218,643, as compared with a total male registration of 474,981. The total registration now is 693,624.

More women than men registered here today. That was because a greater proportion of the men were on the registration books from former elections.

A cold rain and chilly March wind made the registration smaller than had been expected by politicians, both men and women. Women took an active part in work at the polls and election officials and party workers were divided about equally between men and women.

Quincy Polls Not Open.

Quincy, Ills., March 17.—The polls were not open here today for the registration of women voters. Practically the full strength of the women vote was registered here in January for a commission form election. Nearly 6,000 were registered at that time.

Danville Women Busy.

Danville, Ills., March 17.—Despite the blustery weather the women of Danville flocked to the registration places today in numbers that astonished the mere male politicians. Both sides worked hard to get their women voters out and as a result 6,263 women were registered for the city election April 21st.

The male vote at the last city election was 6,600.

The most sanguine "drys" had predicted a registration of only about 5,000 women today.

Will Have Another Opportunity.

Peoria, Ills., March 17.—Many women who attempted to register here this afternoon were disappointed because many election judges followed the original custom of making up poll books, hanging them outside and then closing the polls. On this account no figures as to the actual registration are obtainable. In one precinct however, 418 women were registered against 368 men.

The voters will be given another opportunity to register on March 31st, as two days were designated as registration days.

Election at St. Paul.

St. Paul, Minn., March 17.—Early returns tonight from St. Paul first non-partisan primary election and also its first election under the commission charter indicated that Louis Nash, member of the board of county commissioners and William Powers, a publisher had been nominated for mayor. There were five other candidates for the mayoralty nomination and seventy six for councilmen.

Three Tickets in Field.

Waterloo, Iowa, March 17.—With three tickets in the field and a fourth one promised the municipal campaign in this city promises to be exciting. Mayor R. C. Thompson seeks re-election and is opposed by former mayor John R. Rector and Roy Beed the latter at the head of a union labor ticket. The fourth ticket will be a "dry" ticket, if entered.

Meetings have been held a various places each evening and considerable interest manifested.

The leaders of the various tickets are confident of victory. The union labor ticket is expected to poll a large vote this year as the result of an active campaign which began a week ago. The latter ticket has been filed and the others will be filed Wednesday afternoon.

FEDERALS REPORTED TO HAVE MET VILLA'S ARMY AT ESCALON

Huerta Troops Outnumber Constitutionalists and General Urbina is Said to Have Telegraphed For Reinforcements.

Juarez, Mexico, March 17.—Heavy fighting with the rebels hard pressed, was reported here tonight. A force of federals is said to have met Villa's army at Escalon, an important railroad town 100 miles north of Torreon and both sides having been reinforced, theb attle is said to have raged fiercely all day today.

The railroad from Torreon runs north through Escalon to Jiminez, Chihauhua and beyond. On each side of the road are mountains.

These for ten miles are marked with rifle pits dug in previous revolutions. It is reported that the federals whose numbers are not known, moved out of Torreon in two detachments pursuant to orders from Provisional President Huerta. One detachment is said to have moved over the plains west of the railroad with the mountains between it and the road, while the main body went directly by rail to Escalon. The eastern detachment evidently was trying to get in Villa's rear as it was moving in the direction of Jiminez which is fifty five miles north of Escalon. General Urbina of the constitutionalists however, had been posted at Rosario, to guard against just such strategy and last Saturday is said to have encountered the advance guard of the federals at or near that city, which is about 110 miles west of Jiminez.

Wires for Reinforcements.

He is said to have been outnumbered and to have telegraphed for more men and artillery. The main battle at Escalon apparently nicely timed by General Velasco, the federal commander to occur after reinforcements had been detached to assist Urbina is believed to have begun last night or early today. No details are available. The bare facts of an engagement were collected in a telegram of only fifteen words.

The Zaragosa brigade of 1,300 veterans under General Agurre Benavides encountered the federals at Escalon and is rported to have been pressed back yesterday. This is believed to account for the sudden departure from Chihauhua last night of General Francisco Villa the rebel commander-in-chief. He gave his staff one hour's notice and then departed on a special train. It is assumed that Villa brought up reinforcements today and that the battle was renewed.

GOVERNOR DUNNE ADDRESSES SCRANTON IRISH-AMERICAN CLUB

Speaker Asserts George Washington Ordered First Public Celebration of St. Patrick's Day in America.

Scranton, Pa., March 17.—"The first public celebration of St. Patrick's Day in America was ordered by General Washington," said Governor Edward F. Dunne of Illinois in an address here today to the Irish-American Club of Scranton.

"March 17th, 1776," said Governor Dunne, "Major General Washington at Boston issued the following order for the day:

"'Parole Boston—Countersign, St. Patrick—Brigadier General of the Day—John Sullivan.' And under the marshalship of the Irish-American general John Sullivan, the first St. Patrick's Day procession in America started to the tune of the "Wearing of the Green'."

Governor Dunne recounted the names of Irishmen who have been leaders in this country in war, statesmanship, art and science and declared:

"This land has extended to us her open arms. We have proved our gratitude and loyalty and ever will continue to prove them."

Governor Dunne concluded with a demand for disarmament.

"Every American citizen," he said, "should do everything in his power to build up the sentiment for universal disarmament. Let us help free the world from the nightmare of war and battle."

CONDITIONS ELIMINATE DANGER OF HIGH WATER

Little Rain and High Temperatures Eliminate Danger of Floods From Melting Snow.

Washington, March 17.—General absence of rain and the unusually high temperatures prevailing during the past week have eliminated danger of high waters and floods from melting snow, according to the weather bureau. A special bulletin issued tonight said the snow covering all over the country had disappeared except in the more elevated districts and that the ice had broken up and gone out of the principal rivers with a few exceptions, without causing any marked rises in the streams.

With the exception of probable local rains in Pennsylvania, New York and New England within the next twenty-four hours, the bureau announced the outlook for fair weather is good.

ATTACK PRESENT FOREIGN POLICY

REPRESENTATIVES OPPOSE REPEAL OF TOLLS EXEMPTION CLAUSE

Representative Kahn of California Declares Misunderstanding and Humiliation Have Been Fruit of Administration's Foreign Policy—Other News of Washington.

Washington, March 17.—Two Republican Representatives, Kahn of California and Moore of Pennsylvania, took the floor in the house today to oppose the proposed repeal of the tolls exemption clause of the Panama canal act although general debate on this question is not expected to begin until Saturday. Both speakers attacked the administration's foreign policy generally and held that the exemption of American coast-wise shipping from canal tolls was not in violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. Discussion of the tolls controversy is to be precipitated in the senate, too, in advance of formal consideration of a repeal measure.

In his speech in the house Representative Moore took the position that the government, in its treaties with Great Britain governing the building of the canal did not give up the exclusive right to regulate its own commerce and declared that the president's position called upon congress to vote the American people out of their right to regulate and manage their internal affairs through and upon the canal.

Opposes Pending Sims Bill.

In a bitter attack upon the administration's foreign policy the fruit of which he said had been misunderstanding and humiliation, Representative Kahn of California today warned the house against the pending Sims' bill to repeal the tolls exemption provision of the Panama canal act. He cited several instances which he declared conclusively proved that England would not yield if she were in a position similar to that of the United States and said her "history is replete with instances in which she has firmly and vigorously refused to yield her inalienable rights."

"This greatest of all the world's republics has grown to be in one brief year of Democratic administration the pariah of the nations," Mr. Kahn declared. "Under the blight of its foreign policy we stand today isolated, deserted, alone. It is a humiliating confession but its truth cannot be gainsaid." The speaker expressed this belief that "no people on earth that have a due regard for the opinions of mankind would be willing to sell their birthright for such an unappable mess of potage."

Mr. Kahn insisted that if the tolls exemption provision was repealed it would result in additional demands upon the United States by foreign nations.

Shocks Suffrage Advocates.

After a vigorous defense of woman suffrage in the senate today, Senator Borah of Idaho shocked suffrage advocates on the floor and in the galleries by declaring it was impractical and impossible to obtain a vote for women by a constitutional amendment. He predicted that after fifteen years of vain endeavor, the women would renew their abandoned request for the ballot before the people of the states, because in seeking an amendment to the federal constitution they had loaded themselves down with the negro question, the Japanese question and a dozen other states right problems.

"You will never carry the required thirty six states for a constitutional woman suffrage amendment," said the senator, "until you repeal the fifteenth amendment."

Senators Lane, Thomas and Poindexter spoke in favor of the amendment during the day. No vote was taken and the resolution will come up again tomorrow.

$500,000 to Keep Mexicans.

Five hundred thousand dollars to pay for the maintenance of Mexican soldiers and refugees interned in the United States has been adopted by the senate by the urgent deficiency bill reported to the senate today.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRE

PORTLAND, Ore., March 17.—Mrs. John Larsen, who is mayor of Troutdale, Ore., caused the arrest of her own husband today on a charge of selling liquor to minors.

SOFIA, March 17.—Varna, the principal Bulgarian port on the Black sea between Kustendje and the Bosphorus, is threatened with destruction by fire. The fire started in a spirit factory.

ST. LOUIS, March 17.—The police of St. Louis today were asked to assist in the search for two prisoners who escaped from the penitentiary at Chester, Ill., Sunday night or Monday morning.

LOS ANGELES, March 17.—Freddie Welsh, lightweight of Ponty Pridd, Wales, won a decision over Joe Rivers of Los Angeles at Vernon arena today after twenty rounds of fighting. Welsh had a lead on points nearly all the way.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., March 17.—The state convention of Royal Neighbors of America opened in this city today with several hundred delegates in attendance. Degree work was exemplified tonight on 125 candidates.

PROMINENT NEW YORK SOCIETY WOMAN IS GRANTED DIVORCE

Mrs. Elsie Whalen Goelet Granted Decree From Robert Goelet on Ground of Extreme Cruelty.

Newport, R. I., March 17.—Mrs. Elsie Whalen Goelet, prominent in society circles of New York and this city, was granted a divorce today from Robert Goelet on the ground of extreme cruelty. By mutual agreement the terms of which were not made public, both are to have the custody of their older son, Ogden, aged six. The mother is to keep Peter, aged two, their only other child, until he is six years old when she is to share the custody of the child with the father. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Goelet was in court and the suit was uncontested. All the testimony was by depositions which were read in tones so low as to be barely audible.

Elsie Whalen, the second daughter of Henry Whalen, of a well known family, became socially notable in the Newport season of 1905 when as a debutante her beauty attracted much attention. Robert Goelet, the only son of Mrs. Ogden Goelot, fell in love with her and they were married at Wayne, Pa., on June 14, 1906. Miss Alice Roosevelt was one of the bridesmaids and Mrs. Charles Biddle, a sister of the bride, matron of honor.

Mrs. Schwab Granted Divorce.

Chicago, March 17.—Mrs. Maud Morris Schwab, daughter of the late Nelson Morris, packer, was granted a divorce today from Henry C. Schwab, a wealthy merchant here. Their 11 year old son was given to his mother for eleven months of each year until he is 14 years old when he is to choose with which of his parents he prefers to live.

Mrs. Schwab charged cruelty.

"No woman on earth could get along with him," she testified. "He was 15 years older than I and had had his fun and wanted only to stay at home."

WAGE SCALE CONFERENCE RENEWS NEGOTIATIONS

CHICAGO, March 17.—The wage scale conference of the bituminous c al operators and miners of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois resumed negotiations here today at the same point at which they left off at Philadelphia two weeks ago.

The present agreement will expire April 1, but the opinion was expressed today that though apparently the employers and the men had made no progress toward settlement there would be no labor crisis, but that the present scale would remain in force until a new scale had been accepted.

SEVERAL CHICAGO POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS INCORPORATED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 17.—A number of Chicago political organizations were incorporated today: The Seventn Ward Roger C. Sullivan for United States Senator club was organized to "promote the candidacy and assist in the nomination and election of Roger C. Sullivan for United States senator." James M. Whalen, John S. Mullaney, Jr., Anthony McVady, Jr., and others are the incorporators.

The Jane Jefferson club is incorporated by Katherine T. Sweeney, Mrs. Mary Agnew, Sarah Fitzgerald and May G. Byrns to promote the principles of the Democratic party.

The Thirty-fourth Ward Woman's Regular Democratic organization was incorporated by Bridget C. Cowley, Mary A. Rockett, Anna Cervak and others.

RECEIVER FINDS ASSETS OF BANKING ASSOCIATION SMALL

CHICAGO, March 17.—Six cents, a safe containing a few bonds of uncertain value and some office furniture are all the assets of the American Banking association which have been discovered, according to counsel for the receiver testifying today before a referee in the bankruptcy proceedings against John W. Worthington, president of the association.

Worthington refused to answer questions relative to the whereabouts of possible assets, defying the order of Federal Judge Carpenter. An effort will be made tomorrow by attorneys for the receiver to have Worthington cited for contempt of court. Charges of using the mails to defraud are pending in the federal court against Worthington.

"GENERAL" KELLY'S ARMY IS DISPERSED

ONLY A FEW OF HIS FOLLOWERS REMAIN IN YOLO COUNTY CAMP

Sheriff Monroe Promises Men That Their Leaders Would Be Released From Jail if They Would Disperse and they Departed Quietly in Small Groups Throughout the Day.

Sacramento, Cal., March 17.—"General" Charles Kelly's unemployed army, which began its march on Washington, D. C., 1,800 strong from San Francisco ten days ago, has been dispersed. Only a few remained tonight in the camp on the Yolo levee to which the army was driven last week by Sacramento deputies.

Sheriff Monroe of Yolo county served notice on the anti-Kelly faction of the army that its leaders, seven in number, would be released from jail if the faction dispersed by nightfall. The offer was accepted and throughout the day the men departed in small groups. They were permitted to cross the bridge over the Sacramento river and proceed through Sacramento City but were compelled to keep going in the direction of the county line.

The district attorney of Sacramento county said today that Kelly and his principal aides would be prosecuted.

In a remarkable report communicated to the war department in Washington, Adjutant General Forbes of the national guard of California has given official cognizance to an alleged plan of "General" Kelly's unemployed army to seize the federal arsenal at Rock Island, Ills., in order to equip an army of 500,000 men with arms and ammunition for a revolution against the government.

General Forbes' report is based on one made to him by Lieutenant Franklin Grimes of a Sacramento company of the state guard, who joined Kelly's army as a hobo some days ago, while acting as a spy on behalf of his chief.

Lieutenant Grimes, with a wealth of detail, related how he had gained the confidence of the leaders of the unemployed, who divulged to him their plan for capturing the United States government. There was to be a gathering of many armies at Chicago, according to Grimes, the men reaching that city as best they might. The leaders, according to the military spy, believed they could assemble 500,000 men at Chicago. Then, moving in force, they would capture the Rock Island arsenal.

Plenty of Soldiers Ready.

Rock Island, Ills., March 17.—When told of alleged plans of an army of unemployed to seize the arsenal, Col. Burr, commandant at the Rock Island arsenal tonight said he had plenty of trained soldiers to repulse any attempt of Kelly's army to secure arms and ammunition to start a revolution.

He said he could get ample reinforcements from the regular army in 24 hours and that he had no fear of an invasion.

Kelly's Plan "Absurd."

Washington, March 17.—Preposterous and absurd on its face, was the way army officers here tonight characterized the reported plan of General Kelley's unemployed army to attack the Rock Island arsenal as a step toward a revolution against the government. Adjutant General Forbes' report had not reached the war department tonight.

CHARLES P. TAFT IN CHICAGO TO INSPECT HOME OF THE CUBS

Claims That Assertions That Much Improvement Was Needed at Park Brought Him to the City.

Chicago, March 17.—Charles P. Taft, principal owner of the Chicago National League club arrived here tonight from Cincinnati to look over the club's ball park. He declined to confirm rumors that his visit had to do with the selection of a successor to Charles W. Murphy as president of the club but said that only the assertions that much improvement was needed at the park brought him here.

Members of the Connery-Spiegel syndicate, in making their offer for Mr. Taft's stock yesterday argued that an expenditure of perhaps $500,000 for a new plant would have to follow the outlay of capital for the stock and that this added expenditure should be considered in making a price for the stock. Mr. Taft expects to remain in Chicago several days.

RECEIVER EXONERATED.

Glenwood, Iowa, March 17.—Ed S. Harlan of Atlantic, former receiver for the Atlantic Northern and Southern railroad, was exonerated of charges of embezzlement in the district court here today.

M. F. DUNLAP DISCUSSED SOME PHASES OF BANKING

Well Known Local Financier Heard In Interesting Address at Public Library—Talked Informally on Subject of Great Moment.

An interested audience assembled at the library building last evening to listen to an address by M. F. Dunlap on some phases of banking and finance.

E. E. Crabtree presided and with some justly complimentary remarks introduced the speaker of the evening.

In his opening remarks Mr. Dunlap alluded to the first experience of Hon. W. J. Bryan when, a young attorney in Jacksonville, he was billed to speak at a Democratic rally at Buckhorn. Timothy Flynn was to introduce him and asked beforehand what he should say. Mr. Bryan had recently hung out his sign as an attorney so he told Tim to say that W. J. Bryan, an attorney of Jacksonville would address the audience. Several times Tim repeated it till he thought he had it down pat but when the time came for the introduction he said: "Mister O'Brien will now spake."

Of the gentleman's excellent address only a brief outline is attempted at present.

Credit and Money.

"Banks perform a useful service in that they offer a safe place for the people's money which otherwise they would have to carry or conceal with all the attendant risk but with banks the means of the people are brought together and in that manner, also the banker is enabled to assist others who need money to use in business. People are apt to confuse credit with money. When we see that the banks of New York city have say two billions on deposit we naturally think of it as a large sum of money but it really means that the banks owe that much and it is largely in the form of notes and credits and a small part in actual currency.

"The country could do little without credit. Manufacturing enterprises could not be conducted; railroads could not be built and many other useful things could not be done without credit. Many persons think that the main thing a banker must do is to see that a customer is good for the loan he wants to make when in reality that is not all. A wise banker should know to what use the money asked for is to be put and a reasonable customer should be willing to tell.

"For instance; a young man came to our bank to borrow a thousand dollars with his father, amply good, as security and the money was loaned without any questions. When it came due the young man asked an extension and it transpired that he had bought a lot with the money thinking it would rise in value and he wanted to renew the note till he could sell the lot, which was problematical. We could have asked his father for the money and received it but he would have been offended and probably would have started a story or suggestion that we were getting close run which would be bad for us. Had we known what the young man meant to do with his money and advised him against the purchase it would have been better for him and us also.

Illinois Farms Good Security.

"Illinois farm lands, with a suitable margin for safety, are the best security in the world, better than government bonds. You may be surprised at that but it is a fact, for the bonds are subject to fluctuation. For instance; bonds that at one time brought 107 are now below par. They may come back again and probably will but if a man had to realize on some bought at 107 he would lose heavily.

the nation was great. The flat money or "greenbacks" were issued as far as wisdom would permit. Then came bonds and with these as security the national banks issued their currency. They bought the bonds from which they received at the first six per cent and then got their currency and loaned that at ten per cent which was very profitable but it is not so much so now.

"At present a Jacksonville banker may have a part of his reserve in currency and part with good Chicago banks on which he gets a rate of two per cent interest on daily balances. Lack of confidence breeds panics as was the case in 1907 and had not the banks been able to hold off some of their timid depositors great trouble might have ensued. Generally speaking the people acted sensibly at that time and so dire disaster was averted Banking depends largely on the confidence the people have in their financial institutions and generally that is now great and we may look for improvement.

The Growth of Banking.

"Since the war we have been under the national bank system but a new law has been passed and is soon to go into effect. There has been some criticism regarding the manner of appointing the men who are to have charge of the banking system but it is hardly just. The new plan will have a tendency to avert panics for the volume of currency will be elastic and consequently when a time comes when great amounts of currency are needed the banks will be able to supply it and so avert a wide spread panic which would mean disaster to the land. There will be no more than twelve and no less than eight regional banks Each regional bank will be managed by nine men, three of whom may be bankers, three chosen by the people and three by the government and in this way all classes will be fairly represented and a sound institution will be the result.

"Time was when small pox was so dreaded that if a town had a single case it would keep almost everybody away but now with vaccination we pay little attention to a case in our midst. So we may feel our currency system has been vaccinated and will be safer. At first the bankers of the land were opposed to the law but gradually it was understood and they are genereally in favor of it. I think it will add courage and stability to the land and give business men better reason to look for steady business and lack of panic or bad reverses.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION SODALITY PRESENTS "THE BLIND PRINCESS"

Performance at Grand Opera House Tuesday Evening is Witnessed by A Large Audience.

At the Grand Opera House Tuesday night the members of the Immaculate Conception Sodality of the Church of Our Savior presented "The Blind Princess" to a large and appreciative audience.

The play, written by the Very Rev. F. Felix, O. S. B., is founded on the many miraculous cures that are affected by the use of the water at the famous shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes. The story tells of the vision of Bernadette, a shepherdess, in which she saw the Blessed Virgin at Lourdes and of how Rosabella, blind daughter of Elenora, princess of Valencia, hearing of the many cures that have taken place at Lourdes, visits the place and receives her sight. She returns to her home and her cruel and unbelieving mother becomes a different person on seeing that her daughter had regained her sight, and gives a substantial donation toward the building of a shrine at Lourdes.

The young ladies who took part in the performance acquitted themselves in an admirable manner and that they won the appreciation of the large audience was evidenced by the hearty applause.

The cast of characters follows:

THE REST OF THE WEEK.

Will be display days at the millinery store of L. C. & R. E. Henry, south side milliners.

OBSERVES SIXTY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY.

Tuesday was the sixty-eighth birthday of Mrs. Alexander Patteron and it was observed with a gathering of about twenty relatives and friends at her home on South Park street Tuesday afternoon. A delightful time was spent by the guests and Mrs. Patterson, who is in excellent health, enjoyed the occasion as fully as those many years younger. She was the recipient of a number of presents. During the afternoon refreshments were served.

L. C. & R. E. Henry's spring display of beautiful millinery will commence today and continue until Saturday night.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. Julia Little celebrated her fifty-fourth birthday Tuesday at her home in Alexander. About twenty-five of her friends visited with Mrs. Little and brought well filled baskets, which resulted in an elaborate dinner. The home was very prettily deocrated for the occasion in keeping with St. Patrick's day and small shamrocks were given as favors. The afternoon proved a most enjoyable one.

LADIES REMEMBER.

SEWING CIRCLE MEETS.

The Sewing Circle of Northminster church met with Mrs. Henry Day Tuesday afternoon when a large amount of work was accomplished. The occasion was also Mrs. Day's birthday and she was presented with a gift by the members of the society. After the work a social hour was enjoyed when refreshments were served.

ENTERTAINED BARACAS.

Charles H. Story entertained ten of the young men of the Baraca class of the First Baptist church Monday evening at his home on the Vandalia road. Plans for the future were discussed and much enthusiasm was manifested by these members of Mr. Story's class for the advancement of the Sunday school work.

BILLY SUNDAY ASSAILED BY THREE HUNDRED MINISTERS

Demand That All New York Churches Be Closed for Revival Causes Bitter Attack—Sunday Not Worried.

New York, March 17.—Red hot criticism of Evangelist Billy Sunday and his methods as "expensive, innefectual and undignified," was current among Methodist ministers of Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Jersey conference in which the attacks on Sunday became so bitter that finally the doors were closed. "If you criticize Sunday, he tells you to go to hell," said Rev. E. E. Piper of Pittsburgh, who also asserted that Sunday "abused the Protestant churches with the worst kind of Billingsgate but never once said aught against the Roman Catholic church."

More than 300 ministers were present at the meeting and most of them loudly applauded the attacks on Sunday. The Reverend Piper said the expense of Sunday's recent revival was $90,000 and its returns 341 alleged converts, showed $260 was the cost of each convert. Particularly were the New York ministers aghast at Sunday's reported demand that the churches close up during a planned campaign here.

Former President Chadwick of the local conference, said: "Are we ready to get down on our knees to Sunday? Do we want to close up ninety-six of our churches that Sunday may manage them? Shall our Protestant churches in New York go out of business for a month that Sunday may have something to do?" The general impression of the conference was that they would not.

Sunday Not Worrying.

Scranton, Pa., March 17.—"The New York clergymen need not throw any fits over me," was the comment of Reverend "Billy" Sunday, who was asked today what he had to say on the criticism of himself and his methods made at a meeting of the Methodist ministers in New York yesterday. "I am not even going to New York to start a campaign," he continued, "so they need neither bother about me nor my methods."

THE IRISH PLAYERS

"When you have a repertory company touring with twenty-five or plays; when you hate the 'stock' drawing room set with a hatred only equal to that with which you hate the 'stock' woodland scenes; when expense and convenience limit the amount of your scenery, then indeed your trouble begins." Thus spoke the manager of the "Irish Players" who appears at the Grand Friday night.

Continuing he said: "I think that we from the Abbey Theatre of Dublin solved the question of cottage interiors long ago to our own satisfaction and find that for most of our peasant plays the Brown cottage set is suitable and pleasing (varying it now and again with a set in gray and in some plain color) but with out exterior scenes and with scenes for our poetic plays we have not been so happy. Our scenes were either too elaborate and tricky for tour or else were conventional and unpleasing.

"It was Mr. Gordon Craig who showed us the way out. Three years ago he gave us leave to use in Ireland his patented invention of screens of various sizes, with which you can build up scenes of a beauty, a grandeur, a simplicity, hitherto impossible. We are not allowed to take the screens with us when we leave Ireland, but they have taught us the lesson of straight lines and right angles, and this winter Mr. Yeats, made a design for something which I think I may call an inner proscenium. It is perfectly simple, perfectly rectangular; it is like two match boxes set on end with a third laid across the top, and in each standing match box is a door. The color is a drab gray which barely arrests the eye. With simple changes this answers for all scenes.

MONEY FROM CORN SOLD IN 1913 RAISED EARLIER NOT TAXABLE.

Revenue Department Has Reversed Ruling in This Particular—Collector Pickering Makes Matter Clear in Letter.

According to a leter from Collector J. L. Pickering published in the Decatur Review, the revenue department has changed the ruling with reference to payment of taxos on corn raised in 1912, but sold in 1913. Those who sold crops of 1912 and earlier years in 1913 and included the amounts received therefor in their income tax returns will, it is prosumed, get proper rebate a little later on.

The plan now suggested is for the man to pay his income tax as assessed, based on the return he made, and then "demand of the collector a refund for the amount of income tax represented by the income derived from such crops of 1912 and earlier years, sold in 1913 and included in their 1913 return.

In reply to one making inquiry, John L. Pickering, internal revenue collector for this district, has made the following reply:

"Springfield, Ill., March 9, 1914.

"Under dato of March 6, 1914, I am in receipt of the following ruling from Hon. W. H. Osborn, commissioner of internal revenue, Washington:

"'The amount received for corn and other grain raised and harvested in 1912 which was received as rental for the year 1912 and not sold until 1913, is not returnable as income for the year 1913. The sale of the corn or other grain is considered as simply a change of the form of the assets. Grain raised in 1913 and not sold until January, 1914, should, nevertheless, be accounted for upon some basis of valuation for the year 1913. If in the year 1914 it is sold for less than the 1913 valuation, the loss may be claimed, but if sold for more than the 1913 valuation, the additional income should be reported for 1914.'

"Please inform all who have filed returns of income for 1913 and who have included in said returns crops raised in 1912 and sold in 1913, that it is too late now to change the return. When they receive notice of assessment of income tax they should pay the amount required, and demand of the collector a refund for the amount of income tax represented by the income derived from such crops of 1912 sold in 1913 and included in their 1913 return.

MAKING PLANS TO IMPROVE LAFAYETTE SCHOOL GROUNDS

Parent-Teacher Association of Second Ward Considers Ways and Means at Meeting Tuesday—Address by C. C. Capps.

The improvement of the grounds at the Lafayette school building was the subject of discussion Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the Second Ward Parent-Teacher association. Some interesting and practical suggestions regarding school yard beautifying were made the association by C. C. Capps who spoke from practical experience as a promoter of landscape gardening and a comprehensive tour of inspection was made of the grounds at the close of the address. Mrs. W. T. Wilson presided at the meeting and Mrs. U. G. Woodman acted as secretary. A well rendered solo was given by Mrs. A. M. Roberts, with Mrs. W. D. Roberts at the piano. A social hour accompanied by the serving of refreshments followed the regular business of the afternoon.

The grounds at the Lafayette school, the discussion brought out, are rough and uncared for in the extreme. There is no sod to speak of and the uneven condition of the yard allows the water to stand in a number of places. Draining will first be necessary and the ground will have to be dressed down, seeded and rolled.

The best plan to follow in improving the grounds, Mr. Capps said, would be to plant hardy shrubbery around the borders, leaving the center level and comparatively unobstructed. Among the shrubs mentioned as suitable for planting in such places are Japanese barberry, viburnum, the dogwoods, spiraea and Douglas spruce. These would grow more beautiful year by year and would be many times more valuable than any flowering annual plants would be. The school grounds already contain several large trees and a few smaller ones. The elms and the larger maples should be retained, but a few of the undeveloped maples could be taken out with advantage. The poplars should be cut away as they are too prone to sprout, shed their leaves badly and give practically no shade. The whole plan for improvement, Mr. Capps said, would be comparatively inexpensive to put into operation especially when one considers the great benefits to be derived.

To our Sales Room, 222 South Main Street, and see those 1914 Automobiles, examine them closely and note their beautiful finish and solid construction. Go into details with the man in charge. Ask questions. Ask about the factory, its financial condition, etc.

After a thorough investigation we believe that you will agree with us that the Reo offers more value for the price than any other auto now being sold.

You will not be urged to buy a Reo. In fact, you will not be asked to buy one. What we do ask is that before you buy a car that you see the Reo and get your information about them from a reliable source. Ask for a demonstration. See the simple cane handle control; the method of applying the brakes whereby you disconnect the engine and apply both sets of brakes without removing your hands from the steering wheel. This is an exclusive feature with the Reo and there are many other things which make it stand out head and shoulders above any other car in its class.

Then after this careful investigation should you decide to buy a Reo we will be pleased to sell it to you and you will get with it our personal guarantee of satisfactory service.

ERUPTION ALL OVER CHILD'S BODY

Began With Small Red Spots. Cried Almost Day and Night. Used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. Well in One Week.

R. F. D. No. 2, Jackson, Mo. — "Our daughter who is ten months old was suffering from an eruption all over the body. In the beginning they were small red spots and afterwards turned to bloody sores. We tried all sorts of ointments but they did not procure any relief for our child. She had no rest day or night and we tried everything to procure relief for our baby. She cried almost day and night and we scarcely could touch her, because she was covered with sores from head to foot.

"We had heard about the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and made a trial with them, and after using the remedies, that is to say, the Soap and the Ointment, only a few days passed and our child could sleep well and after one week she was totally well." (Signed) August F. Bartels, Nov. 25, 1912.

HIGH COST OF LIVING

Manufacturers' News: It is customary to complain about the high cost of living in this and other countries and in most cases the complaint is justified, but, although food is more expensive than it was ten or fifteen years ago, during a period of low prices, it should be taken into consideration that many articles of manufacture have been materially reduced in price owing to better organization methods, mechanical inventions and more efficient production in our industries. Among articles in common use that are much cheaper than in former years are:

Newspapers—One can buy the news of the world and a library for one cent in Chicago, where the daily newspapers are unequaled.

Illumination—Electric light, gas and kerosene are so cheap that they are in the homes of everyone at a cost much less than the tallow dips of our grandsires.

Clothing—Men's clothing never has been so cheap, nor of such excellent durability and style. This does not apply to women's clothing.

Street car fares—Who would have imagined during the civil war what a nickel would have bought in Chicago in 1914?

The list might be continued almost until it would fill all the pages of this isssue of Manufacturers' News.

It should not be forgotten that even food in this country is cheaper now than it has been in the past.

The editor of a village newspaper in Otsego county, The Morris Chronicle, reports that he recently saw a day book kept by a storekeeper of that place in 1866, in which it appeared that yellow sugar then cost 17 cents a pound, crushed sugar 32 cents, raisins 35 cents, cinnamon 80 cents, green tea $1, black tea $1.50, coffee 35 cents, baking soda 10 cents; flour, per barrel, $14; matches, per bunch, 9 cents; and sheeing, per yard, 25 cents.

This list was submitted by the editor to a village storekeeper of today in order to obtain present prices, the result being that while the above articles in a single pound, yard, or bunch each, would have cost in 1866 a total of $18.84, they can now be obtained in the same village for $8.50, that is, for considerably less than half, and "of far better quality today than then."

The editor notes further—and this is a vital point in the whole matter—that a day's wages in this village in 1866 were from $1 to $1.25. He does not give the rate of wages for common labor now, but it must be at least twice what it was then.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Vermont has decided to adopt the direct primary system.

Fred T. Dubois seeks to return to the United States senate from Idaho on an "Anti-Mormon" platform.

Governor Walsh of Massachusetts has declined to sanction a proposal to increase his salary from $8,000 to $12,000 a year.

Three candidates have announced for the unexpired term of the late United States Senator Johnston of Alabama. The choice will be made at an election in May.

Republicans of Oklahoma will hold a convention in Oklahoma City next month to nominate a complete state ticket to be voted on at the approaching election.

Addison C. Harris, former United States ambassador to Austria, is mentioned for the Republican nomination for United States senator to succeed Senator Shively of Indiana.

Miss Marion Drake, Progressive nominee for alderman in the first ward of Chicago, is making a vigorous campaign for the seat occupied so long by "Bath House" John Coughlin.

The question of framing new state constitutions will be decided by the voters of Indiana and South Dakota at the regular elections to be held in those states next fall.

Indiana Republicans will meeet in Indianapolis on April 22 to nominate candidates for United States senator and for the state offices to be filled at the November election.

Representative Campbell B. Slemp the only Republican member of Virginia's congressional delegation, announces that he will not accept renomination this year.

Representative Frank B. Willis of the Eighth Ohio district has made formal announcement of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor of Ohio this year.

It is said that Jack London, the well known novelist, may seek both the Socialist and Prohibitionist nomination for governor of California. London has long been known as a Socialist, but his interest in prohibition appears to be of recent date.

John Bassett Moore, who recently resigned his position as counsellor of the State Department at Washington, is mentioned as a possible candidate on the Republican ticket to succeed Elihu Root in the United States senate.

H. J. Bessesen, a former member of the North Dakota senate, has entered the race for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor of that state on a platform that endorses woman suffrage, the recall and the initiative and referendum.

Nothing definite has been settled as yet in regards to the choice of Iowa Democrats for the seat of United States Senator Cummins, whose term will expire next March. So far the only names mentioned are those of Representative Maurice Connolly of Dubuque, and W. W. Marsh, a prominent manufacturer of Waterloo.

Ex-Judge George Turner, who has announced his candidacy for the seat of United States Wesley L. Jones of Washington, has had a distinguished public career. He was in the United States senate from 1897 to 1903 and on the conclusion of his term he was appointed a member of the Alaska Boundary Tribunal. He served as a member of The Hague Peace Commission and recently has been a member of the international joint commission having jurisdiction over waterways between the United States and Canada.

IF SPRINGFIELD SHOULD GO DRY

There are 212 saloons in the city of Springfield and it is a safe guess that the men most interested in the liquor business of the Capital City are mighty worried today. And there is cause for worry, too, for 10,000 women registered there yesterday and will probably take part in the wet and dry election April 21st. If the percentage of women in the Capital City against the saloons is the same that it has been in some other cities of the state Springfield will certainly go dry. Tho normal vote of men there is about 12,000 and when the liquor question was up at a previous election the wet forces had a majority of about 1,800. If Springfield gets over into the dry column there will be a lot of thirsty statesmen wanting to make Peoria the capital of Illinois.

SAVING THE CHILDREN.

Possibly nothing more surely marks the progress of the times than such gatherings as that now being held in New Orleans, the National Child Labor conference. Men and women have gathered there from all parts of the country to talk of ways and means for lessening the number of children who toil and of making conditions better for those who do continue to form a part of the army of industrial workers.

Conferences like this have within recent years brought about the enactment of many laws designed for the protection of children and have been instrumental in bringing to justice many corporations which have profited through the employment of child labor, ignoring the awful waste of human life and the terrible cruelty which the system engendered. These men and women who work to bring comfort and cheer to the little children of the poor, are engaged in a great humanitarian endeavor and are certainly entitled to rich rewards both here and hereafter.

TUITION AND COUNTY SCHOOLS.

The tuition law passed by the last general assembly is to be tested in the courts, a suit with that intent having been recently brought. The law in brief provides that in districts where no high schools are maintained that pupils may attend high schools elsewhere and that the district in which they live must pay the tuition charges. There are probably some contradictory and unequal provisions in the law and there are some points, too, which seem vague and it is therefore desirable that the measure should be tested in the courts. The intention of the measure, however, which is manifestly to provide a high school education for all children of the rural as well as the city districts, is commendable and if the matter were left to a vote of the people at large understanding only the law's intent, they would probably give it their approval. In other words, the people as a whole are in favor of better educational facilities for the country at large where the expense is not too much beyond their means, are anxious to secure the best there is for their children in the way of school advantages. The average men and women of today want to see their children have more "schooling" than they had themselves.

STOP CATARRH!

Use Hyomei—You Breathe It

Unless properly treated this disease often leads to a serious if not fatal ailment. It is needless to allow catarrh to ruin your health—use Hyomei—it is certainly effective relief for catarrh ills. It's the direct-to-the-spot treatment. You breathe it—no stomach dosing. No household should be without Hyomei. It not only gives quick and lasting benefit in cases of catarrh but is one of the surest and most pleasant treatments for head colds, sniffles, or croup of children.

Hyomei is a combination of antiseptic oils—you breathe it—using a small inhaler. The air laden with health-restoring Hyomei soothes, heals and vitalizes the sore, raw and inflamed membrane of the breathing organs almost immediately. There is no other remedy that benefits so surely or so quickly. Money refunded if you are not satisfied.

Do not be without Hyomei another day. Druggists everywhere sell it. Get the complete outfit—$1.00 size—this contains the inhaler and bottle of liquid.—Adv.

Wednesday

BY WALT MASON

This is a chaste and cheerful day, that makes a hit most everywhere;

it took three medals and they say, a ribbon at the county fair. On Monday man begins the week, and hardly gets his job on straight; next day he labors like a streak, on Wednesday he has struck his gait. He then makes every motion count, and thus he doesn't draw a blank; night finds him with a large amount of real maznma in the bank. Old Woden was an ancient god who never ceased to put up hay, while other godlets roamed aroad and spent the golden hours in play. And Woden humped himself so well, showed such stunning zeal and vim (nor listened for the dinner bell), they named this blooimng day for him. So Wednesday is the workers' day, the day on which we chase the bones; it is no time for foolish play, it is no day for drowsy drones. On Wednesday we should greet the sun when the orb rises in the West, and say, "Before your trip is done, we'll fill with plunks the treasure chest." And then when comes the rainy day—such days have come, and will again—"You cannot freeze our feet," we'll say, and open up a can of yen. So get to work while Wednesday dwells upon Time's evanescent chart, and then when sounds the evening bells, you'll go to rest with peaceful heart.

THIS IS MY 43RD BIRTHDAY.

Victor Murdock.

Victor Murdock, representative in congress of the Eighth Kansas district and the choice of the Progressive party to succeed United States Senator Bristown, was born in Burlingame, Kas., March 18, 1871. In infancy he was taken to Wichita, then a frontier town, where his father ran a newspaper. At the age of 10 Victor was put to setting type. At 20 he went to Chicago to engage in newspaper work in that city. In 1894 he returned to Wichita and assumer control of the newspaper that had been conducted by his father. In 1893 he had been elected to congress to fill a vacancy, and his work in the lower house so pleased his Kansas constituents that they have elected him regularly ever since. Mr. Murdock became an "insurgent" almost as soon as he became a member of the house and since the formation of the Progressive party he has been looked upon as one of its most prominent leaders.

The strained relations between the secretary and the civil service commission threaten to develop definite resistance by Secretary Woods who is outspoken in his opposition to the civil service law.

RAILROAD NOTES.

The Burlington pay car is expected today to dispense shekels among the employes of the road in this vicinity.

Elsome Kitner who has been working for the C., P. & St. L. at Havana has received an appointment with the Northern Pacific which he expects to take soon.

Paul Stansbury of Roodhouse, Chicago & Alton flagman, visited Jacksonville friends yesterday.

James McDermott, chief lineman of the Chicago & Alton, with headquarters at Chicago, is in this region looking after the work of the Western Union force.

A. McElhern, formerly local freight conductor on the Alton, is now piloting for the Western Union force.

At the Car Shops.

William Quinlan, boiler maker, is back to work again after being laid up with an injury.

Combination motor car 102 is rapidly approaching completion and will be a beauty when done.

Passenger coach No. 50 will shortly be ready to go out and will be in apple pie order and a credit to the men who have been working on it for some weeks.

Combination car No. 34 is being used on the mail run instead of baggage car 32.

William Devins of Springfield, motor car foreman, was in the city yesterday looking after combination car 102 and passenger coach 50, both of which are soon to leave the shops.

Fred Shindel is back again at his place in the boiler shop after an illness of a few days.

William Quinlan, a boiler maker, has recovered from a recent sickness and is at work again.

R. Dressendorter has gone to Springfield for a visit with friends.

The veteran blacksmith, Mr. Yeck, recently did some big forging; a yoke and piece for front and back frame of engine No. 5 and a 900 pounds mud ring for engine 54. What Mr. Yeck can't do with William Saner to oversee can't be accomplished on a forge.

The tender of engine 41 is being rebuilt. Engine 41 is stripped bare and looks like a person just pulled out of the mud. The men are now hammering away at the boiler and firebox and Mr. Imgrund predicts that she will be out of the shops this month. If she does there will be some pretty tall work done on her.

Walter Quinlan of the boiler shop is sick.

Louis Frogg, boiler maker, is suffering with illness which is keeping him in a while.

Thomas McKenney, one of the veteran boiler makers, had to give up and go home to nurse a case of sickness.

JOSHUA MOORE PROMINENT PIONEER OF CASS, SCOTT AND MORGAN COUNTIES

Came from East and Settled at Naples In 1836—Married Miss McMackin of This City. Had as Employ at One Time, Mr. Baird, Father of Mrs. W. J. Bryan. Mr. and Mrs. Moore Spent the Latter Years of Their Life in Jacksonville.

The following sketch with the portrait, appeared for the most part in the Winchester Times of March 13, 1914.

As will be observed, Mr. Moore began business in this state at Beardstown and later went to Naples. At that time both Beardstown and Naples were in Morgan county. Cass not having been set off until 1837 and Scott in 1839, consequently Mr. Moore was a pioneer of Cass, Scott and Morgan.

A well known citizen of Chicago, not long ago, referring to efforts now being made to collect and preserve the early history of Illinois, said: "Indeed, as I see it, our state is only coming into its own as histories and biographies are being written. We need to be reminded that "there were giants in those days."

Comers into a new country often brought nothing but themselves or their guns or dogs or their appetites. Even many of those who afterwards became eminent statesmen or soldiers only brought—for their strongest equipment—their great ambitions.

But when a merchant entered the Far West he brought with him not only experience and taste, but capital and goods. These made a demand for storage and sales rooms, and so gave employment to mechanics, and the goods, when sold, enabled people to live in some degree of comfort or respectability, and so the coming of the merchant spelled Progress, and stability of settlement in the new land.

MR. JOSHUA MOORE.

When, to these material things were added high character in the dealer, and honesty in dealing, it was an added advantage to a growing community.

Joshua Moore brought all these good features, when he came to Naples about the year 1836.

Born in New Jersey.

Mr. Moore was born near Lumberton, Burlington county, New Jersey, August 5, 1806 or 1807. He was a Friend, sometimes called a Quaker, by ancestry, his forebear in this country having come over in the brig Welcome, with William Penn; back of that, in England Mr. Moore was descended from Sir John Moore. So he was a gentleman by birth and by nature.

Upon the death of his father, Bethuel Moore, and a little later of his mother, Ann Moore, Joshua Moore went to the neighborhood of Marlton, Camden county, New Jersey, to make his home, from the age of fourteen years, until manhood with his aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Moore Haines. Before leaving that neighborhood, he taught a country school a little while, and one of his scholars admitted that he did not "spare the rod."

But cities are always calling young men to their streets and activities, and the young Friend went over to Philadelphia and secured a position as clerk, from which he soon became a proprietor of a store of his own, having inherited some money from his grandfather.

About this time the call of the West came to him, and Mr. Moore and another young man came out to Eastern Ohio, riding in a "dearborn" drawn by two horses. The vehicle was a covered one, about like a grocer's wagon of today. In Ohio the other fellow gave out, but Mr. Moore rode on horseback as far as Logansport, Ind., which then—in 182?—was in the "Far West."

Lands in Naples.

After returning to the East Mr. Moore was in business in Philadelphia until 1835, when he came to this state, and opened a store in Beardstown. That place did not satisfy him, so he soon went to St. Louis, and remained but a short time. From there he came back up the Illinois to Naples, which then bade fair to be a great place. In fact it was a very important town, and had an extensive business for many years.

The young easterner was not too busy, however, to listen to the suggestions of Cupid, and on the little fellow's recommendation Mr. Moore kept coming to Jacksonville, and visiting Miss Margaret McMackin, a young lady whom he had known in Philadelphia. The end of it all was that they were married by President Sturtevant, of Illinois College, in December, 1841, and at once went to Naples, taking rooms at the Scott House, then kept by Royal Mooers. This hotel was situated about three blocks south of the old Wabash track, when it ran down to the steamboat landing.

Perhaps it was there that Mr. and Mrs. Moore became interested in the Mooers family. The two families were thrown much together in after years, and the two names were often mixed up.

Cholera Visits Community.

Before Mr. Moore's marriage the cholera visited Naples, and he suffered an attack of it, from wh perhaps only good nursing preserved his life.

During his stay in Naples at different times he had in his employ Mark W. Delahay, afterwards a Federal judge in Kansas; Thomas Hollowbush, afterwards member of the Illinois legislature, and John Carver, later on a leading merchant in Meredosia. Judge John Moses was also employed by Mr. Moore, in Naples and Perry. Stephen Glines was put in charge of a branch store in Perry. Some time along in the forties Joshua Moore and Royal Mooers became associated in the lumber business and in the grain trade and on packing, in the two last named lines doing the larger business. Their packing house was on the river bank below town, and was afterwards taken over by the Keeners. The firm name was R. Mooers and Company.

Mr. Moore was an elder in the Perry church.

An Amusing Incident.

One amusing incident which illustrates the conditions of some of the early days occurred in 1851, presumably. Mr. Moore was in the east and telegraphed to Royal Mooers the inquiry:

"How are things going on?" To which Mr. Mooers replied: "Swimmingly, four thousand dollars worth of lumber floated off."

Nowadays people talk of deep snows and other experiences. But Mr. Moore knew of the "high water" of 1844—the highest—of 1849, 1851 and 1858, to say nothing of the lesser "rise" of 1868. So Mr. Moore had all sorts of experiences of getting to and from Perry, across "the bottom," as it was called, and of getting in and out of Naples toward the bluffs east. The river was about eight miles wide, at Naples, one or more times. The western town had no Vesuvius, but there were certainly times when the river was broad enough to suggest a bay.

In those long gone days of the "thirties and forties" the river was the main avenue of travel, and the large and pretty boats—when they did not get aground or blow up were plasant social meeting places. There friends met friends and strangers became acquainted, and delightful seasons of companionship were enjoyed. It is said that Lincoln and Douglas first met on a steamer.

Staunch Supporter of Union.

Mr. Moore was very successful in his business in Naples and Perry, and attained what was considered a handsome competence in those days. It goes without saying that a Friend would be opposed to Human Slavery, as he certainly was; and in the days of the war he was one of the first to buy bonds of the government, when many would not do so, or were afraid of the risk seemingly involved. He was a staunch supporter of the union and helper of the "Boys in Blue,' and was a generous supporter of many another good cause.

After coming to Jacksonville Mr. and Mrs. Moore joined the First Presbyterian church, in which he became president of the trustees. He was also made a trustee of Illinois college. In January, 1864, the Moores joined Westminster church, in which he was treasurer of trustees and an elder.

Joshua Moore left Perry, to make his last earthly home in Jacksonville, in July, 1867, and he gradually got out of his business in Naples and Perry, until, in 1865 or 1866, he retired to private life. But he lived, honored for his fine abilities and splendid character, and respected for his Christian life until Sept. 28, 1871. Then his pastor chose as his funeral text the words: "He was a good man and just."

Personally he was a man of strikingly fine appearance, and dressed in dignified good taste. Seldom since him has the world "looked on his like again."

at least part of the time. Royal Mooers also became a member of the Illinois legislature, in 1852 or '54.

Joshua Moore's store in Naples was burned, without insurance. All the salvage he got was some silver in the money drawer which was melted in the fire. He gave it to his wife, who took it to St. Louis and traded it for a silver cake basket, and a pair of silver candlestocks and snuffers and snuffer tray; all of plated ware.

Came Here in 1857.

Whether or not it was because the store was burned, or for some other reason, Mr. Moore moved his residence to Perry, in Pike county, in July, 1842. But he had business in other lines in Naples until in 1857 he left Perry to live in Jacksonville. Necessarily, being in the merchandizing and produce business in Perry, Mr. Moore had to be at Naples a considerable part of his time, and was one of the largest patrons of steamboats of any dealer along the river. He went to St. Louis very often and was well known and highly esteemed by wholesale merchants and commission merchants in that city, then the largest place in this part of the west, Chicago not getting ahead until 1860.

So it was that for about twenty years Joshua Moore was one of the best known and most valuable business men of Naples.

After going to Perry Mr. Moore became a member of the Presbyterian church, and he and his wife were the main stay of that organization in Perry.

In Perry Mr. Moore took into his store as clerk John Baird, and the firm was afterward Moore and Baird. Mr. Baird was the father of Mrs. William Jennings Bryan. Her mother, Mrs. Livina Baird, was the daughter of Col. Dexter of Perry. When Mr. Moore left Perry as a residence Moore and Baird took into partnership two clerks, Eli Robert Smith and David Rickard, and the firm became Baird and company. Mr. Smith became a captain in the 99th Regt. of Ill. Vols., and was killed at Vicksburg, in May, 1863. The firm was then changed to Moore and company, which closed up about 1865.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore were leading citizens in Perry, Mrs. Moore devoting her life and strength to helping those in trouble and in sickness. The people of the Presbyterian church depended on the advice of Mr. and Mrs. Moore long after the latter came to Jacksonville to live.

TAKE SODA FOR ACID STOMACH, SOURNESS, GAS

A 10 grain Sodagen tablet taken anytime, followed by a glass of water will instantly neutralize acidity; thus relieving Indigestion without fail. Indigestion does not result from a lack of digestive juices as most folks believe, but from an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which retards digestion and starts food fermentation. Then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acrid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon producing a heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch up gas or have flatulence, heartburn or nausea.

Any pharmacist can supply a package of these 10 grain Sodagen tablets and thousands of stomach sufferers will be able to eat without dread after ridding the digestive organs of excess acid this way, says a noted authority who further states that this Antacid is entirely harmless, being composed of Soda, Magnesia and Calcium Carbonate U. FALLING HAIR AND ITCHING SCALP

Entirely Needless—Use Parisian Sage—It Quickly Removes Dandruff—Your Head Feels Fine.

Now that Parisian Sage can be had at any drug or toilet counter, it is certainly needless to have thin, brittle, matted, stringy or faded hair. No matter how unsightly the hair, how badly it is falling, or how much dandruff, use Parisian Sage—it is all that is needed. One application removes dandruff, the hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair, itching scalp and falling hair cease—your head feels fine. Best of all, the hair becomes soft, fluffy, abundant and radiant with life and beauty.

You will be surprised and delighted with Parisian Sage. Try at least one fifty cent bottle. Coover & Shreve will refund the purchase price if you are not satisfied.

F CONSTIPATED OR BILIOUS, "CASCARETS"

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They Work While You Sleep.

Get a 10 cent box.

Take a Cascaret tonight to cleanse your liver, stomach and bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous, upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10 cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

RAVELED THROUGH MANY STATES IN THE WEST

Scott P. Carter Relates Something About His Wanderings in Days Gone By—Traveled About For Fifteen Years.

A few days since the Journal's worthy friend, Scott P. Carter, was somewhat in a reminiscent mood and gave a Journal reporter some account of a series of wanderings over a part of the western country.

On coming of age in 1881 the young man had in inclination to rove and started away from home with $1000, in his pocket, a clear head, a good constitution, a good character, correct habits and a determination to see something of the world. For fifteen years he roamed fro mone place to another, not staying long enough in one spot to acquire the right to vote but always finding enough employment to secure money for all legitimate expenses, and he had no other, and finnally arriving home with as much money in his pocket as he took with him at the start.

His first job was with the Marsh Harvester company of Winona, Minn. and in the fall he struck out for the woods at Chippewa Falls where he worked at logging all winter. In March the desire to rove again seized him and he took a big jump, all the way to Billings, Mont. The Northern Pacific railroad was then being constructed and he joined a gang building a bridge across the river not far from the place. He dropped a tick into the water, the foreman swore at him and he quit at the end of the first day and went on to Miles City, Mont., where he sought a job driving a government freight team which meant ten horses and three wagons tandem.

He was hired but for several days he was not out to work though he answered roll call every night. Finally he was afraid he was wasting his time but they told him every night he answered his name meant pay for a day. This quieted him and he waited a time in patience till the worshipful commander was made known of the readiness of the train to start and the order was given to move.

He rode the left hand horse at the tongue and with a single line attached to the bridle of the left hand leader guided his team. The brake was managed with a long pole upright on the wagon and attached to the brake while from the top of the pole a rope reached to the driver and by pulling that hard enough he could make the hind wheels of the wagon slide at any ime.

The journey was from Fort Keogh to Fort Custer, a considerable distance requiring a good while to make it. Young Carter's load had in it a lot of cove oysters and at night the men in the train would come to it and help themselves to what they wanted to eat. This was all well enough but when pay day came the young, inexperienced driver found himself docked $13.50, the amount his load fell short of what it had when the train started and then he saw why they all went to his wagon for the extra lunch.

He concluded he didn't want to go back and he was released from his time of service promised and went on farther west. When he first went to Billings it was simply a place of tents, stores, hotels and all being under canvas. A man could easily have stolen almost anything from any store and he would have most likely found himself face to face with a vigilance committee which would soon have added his body to the population of the graveyard which was largely peopled by men who had died with their boots on.

Lots then could have been bought for less than a hundred dollars each in the center of the place and within a year they were worth two to three thousand. The canvas houses soon gave way to more substantial buildings and the place rapidly assumed city airs. He secured work on a bridge two miles from Billings and over it the first passenger train went in 1882, on the Northern Pacific road. That was the death knell to a great many primitive customs and ways. The young man saw the last of the buffaloes, or among the last. Their bodies were piled up along the track and he saw a few yet left, but they soon disappeared. A pioneer merchant named Goley, was much disgusted with the new order of things and said he felt far better satisfied when the Sioux Indians were coming down the trail to the place, than when the iron horse snorted and puffed his way along the steel highway.

From 1882 to '83 he was employed in the hotel owned and managed by Dunley, Brown & Co., occupying a place in the office. It was a great place and many a frontiersman stayed there during those early days of the west. Men were genuine and whole souled those times and though they looked fierce, they were all right toward those who won their respect in a proper way.

A good story is told of a minister, a secretary of a home missionary society. The good man had been sent to the far frontier to look up the prospect of the religious work. He had gone away beyond railroads and modern civilization and one morning he found himself seated in a mountain hack with three men, who were veritable walking arsenals and he felt that any moment might be his last and he sat, not afraid to die, but hardly liking the prospect of passing away under such circumstances as those.

The men talked of various adventures; of cowboys, Indians, hunting, killing and the like, till the good man was worked into a state of feeling anything but happy.

Finally the man sitting by him produced a large bottle of whiskey and offering it to the minister said:

"Stranger do you irrigate?"

"If you mean drink, no."

"Do you object to our irrigating?"

"Not if you wish to."

The others took a good pull at the bottle and later on pipes were brought out.

"Stranger, do you fumigate?"

"Do you object to our fumigating?"

"Not at all."

At last they pulled up at a dinner station, which was simplpy a big log house, where a good meal was served. After eating they all repaired to the rooms, which was an office, parlor, sitting room and waiting room, and the secretary stepped up to pay his bill.

"That man over there paid your bill," said the clerk pointing to one of the walking arsenals, who had sat beside him. Going over to him he asked him if he had not made a mistake.

"Not a bit of it. Your bills are all paid as long as you travel in this crowd." As soon as you didn't drink and smoke with us we knowed you was a preacher and we want it understood we respect the gospel." And it turned out that the man was a respectable citizen of Denver.

In 1883, Mr. Carter drifted back to Chippewa Falls and worked again at logging till spring and then found his way to Kansas City. It is needless to suggest that he might have made, if he had bought a few acres of land in the then outskirts of the place, but if we all knew the future it wouldn't be well.

He remained there a while and then roamed from one place to another, never staying long in one locality, but not getting into trouble, and finally, after fifteen years of going about he returned, settled down, married a woman who has truly been a helpmate to him and the friends in Jacksonville know the rest.

A PLEASANT EVENT.

Yesterday afternoon after the close of school in the first ward or Jefferson school building the teachers of the upper rooms were mysteriously invited to tarry a while and when all was in readiness they were invited by the instructors in the lower rooms to a surprise St. Patrick's day party. Everything was in suitable keeping with the day, green, of course predominating while the delicate refreshments of which the afternoon tea consisted were thoroughly njoyed and showed that the young instructors knew well how to prepare the good things of life as to teach the young ideas how to shoot.

Misses English and Phillips poured and the event was one of great pleasure. The relations existing between principal and teachers and among the teachers themselves, are most cordial and little affairs like this serve to emphasize the fact.

SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL.

Rev. W. R. Johnson of White Hall visited his sister, Mrs. L. L. Patterson on Hardin avenue yesterday. Mr. Johnson has just closed a series of meeting at Jerseyville and they were attended with great success, there being forty converts.

John Hardin, of south of the city, was a visitor in Virginia yesterday.

TO GIVE STEREOPTICON LECTURE AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH TONIGHT

Hugh Cork Will Tell About World's Sunday School Convention in Zurich, Switzerland.

Tonight at 8:30 o'clock Hugh Cork, general secretary of the Illinois Sunday school association, will give a steropticon lecture at Central Christian church. Mr. Cork will tell of the World's Sunday school convention that was held in Zurich Switzerland, last summer.

With Mr. Cork there will be Chas. E. Schenck, a state worker, and Frank E. Meyer, business manager of the International Sunday school association. A luncheon will be given at 6 o'clock this evening at the Peacock Inn, at which the Morgan county situation will be discussed. The lecture will follow the prayer meeting at the church and Mr. Cork invites all who are interested in Sunday school work to be present. No admission will be charged.

DRAMA LEAGUE SUPPER.

The Drama League will give a theatre supper Friday evening after the play in honor of the Irish Players. The entire company, as well as Mr. Lennox Robinson, the noted Irish playwright and director of the Abbey Theatre, Dublin, will be guests of the league. Reservations for the supper should be made by noon Thursday at the Peacock Inn.

DISCONTINUES NIGHT OFFICES.

In line with its retrenchment policy, which is carried into effect in the spring, the Burlington railroad company has closed night offices at Atwater, Ayers and Franklin. At Franklin there remains the agent and one day operator, at Atwater one day operator and the office at Ayers has been closed.

ASSESSMENT APPROVED FOR SNY IMPROVEMENT

Judge Henshaw Grants Request of Petitioners for Expenditure of $192,000—All of Great District Will Be Improved—Well Known Engineer Employed.

Presiding in the Pike county court Judge Henshaw recently granted the petition of the commissioners of the Sny Levee Drainage District for an assessment of $192,000 for improvements contemplated in the district. The expenditure of the fund will be spread through a number of years and it is claimed that practically all of the 110,000 acres embraced within the district will be benefited. During recent years complete plans for the reclamation of the district have been formulated and carried forward to their present condition. The Sny ditch proper has been enlarged to sufficient capacity to carry all the creek, surface and tile drainage water for more than one-half its length. The land owners of the upper bottoms have received benefits that show what can be accomplished with the entire body of land. Some of the lands in the lower bottoms are suffering from the arrest of the flow of waters where the enlargement of the Sny has stopped. The purpose of the new assessment is to complete this work of enlargement and to accomplish some other needed improvements.

At this time, there is a prospect of action being taken by the government, that will result in the levee being "standardized," which means it will have to conform to certain specifications prescribed by engineers under the supervision of the interior department. The sum of $60,000 has been set aside by the department for use on the levee for this purpose, and it is hoped the sum of $300,000 may be appropriated by the next congress to continue the work. Organizations are being formed by the drainage districts of the upper Mississippi, and these organizations are using all means in their power to bring about this action.

In the last six months a complete topographical survey of the entire bottoms has been made under the direction of one of the best drainage engineers in the United States, C. G. Elliott of Washington, D. C., with a view to drainage. There is no question of the condition of the district having reached beyond the theoretical stage, and having become the burden of the whole. Hence the employment of the best practical drainage engineer to be found—one whose experience had brought him in contact with many similar problems was secured. Mr. Elliott will submit plans, profiles, blue prints, data and estimates of cost, showing the best methods of dealing with the problems of drainage for the whole bottom, separating into districts the territory inundated by each creek. It will then rest entirely with the landowners in these separate districts whether they avail themselves of this information.

FRAIL, WEAKLY CHILD

Made Strong By Vinol.

So many cases like this are coming to our attention for the benefit of fathers and mothers of weak, sickly, ailing children in this vicinity we publish the following letter:

Mrs. J. P. Weatherford, Litchfield, Ills., says: "We have had an invalid child for the past nine years and until we began using Vinol, we sometimes thought there was little hope for him. He would have terrible coughing spells at night, and they would leave him exhausted. We tried everything, but to no avail At last some one suggested that we try Vinol, and we noticed a change in him from the very first. The coughing spells ceased and he gained in strength right along. We would not be without it and would advise parents who have frail and weakly children to try Vinol."

This is because the child needed the strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains. No oil, delicious taste. Children love it. We give back your money if Vinol does not benefit." Lee P. Allcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

P. S.—For rough, scaly skin, try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

Villa Forces Americans In North of Mexico to Use New Rebel Currency

Photos by American Press Association.

General Pancho Villa is enforcing the use of new Mexican money in the north of Mexico. This currency was recently issued by authority of the Constitutionalists, of which Carranza is the head and Villa is the chief commanding officer. Americans in the north of Mexico are being forced to recognize this money and use it solely. Villa's latest picture is here shown with facsimiles of a coin and a fifty cent note issued in the state of Sonora.

Let Us Hatch 'Em Out for You!

The hatching season is now on and no doubt you will want some early chicks for frys, broilers or pullets for winter layers. If you want chicks we can supply any amount, but here is something better, you furnish the eggs and we will hatch them out for you at a very low price. By so doing you will not have to wait for the broody hen or fuss with an incubator. Our prices for hatching eggs are as follows:

50 Eggs or more.....3c per egg, $3.00 per 100
Less than 50 eggs.....4c per egg
Duck eggs,.....$5.00 per 100, not less tnac 100 accepted

No discount on large orders, nor will we allow for infertiles or non-hatchable eggs. We use standard incubators and give the eggs the best of attention. If the eggs are hatchable we can insure a good hatch.

Hooray! Baby To Rule the House

No Longer Do Women Fear The Greatest of All Human Blessings.

It is a joy and comfort to know that those much-talked-of pains and other distresses that are said to precede child-bearing may easily be avoided. No woman need fear the slightest discomfort if she will fortify herself with the well-known and time-honored remedy, "Mother's Friend."

This is a most grateful, penetrating, external application that at once softens and makes pliant the abdominal muscles and ligaments. They naturally expand without the slightest strain, and thus not only banish all tendency to nervous twitching spells, but there is an entire freedom from nausea, discomfort, sleeplessness and dread that so often leave their impress upon the babe.

The occasion is therefore one of unbounded, joyful anticipation, and too much stress can not be laid upon the remarkable influence which a mother's happy, pre-natal disposition has upon the health and fortunes of the generation to come.

Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers, thousands of whom have used and recommend it. You will find it on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle. Write to-day to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 130 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a most instructive book on this greatest of all subjects, motherhood.

There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. And, in the meantime do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort.

LITERBERRY.

The Literberry M. E. society held their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon, the 11th at "The Zephyrs" on East Capitol street, the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beavers. Mrs. Beavers and Mrs. Earl Rexroat hostesses. After devotional exercises and a short business session, Miss Ethel Sorrells gave a recitation, "The half has not been told." Mrs. D. K. McCarty gave an explanation of St. Patrick's Day and a St. Patrick Day song, both taken from Chamber's Cyclopedia. Mrs. Earl Rexroat conducted the contest, "garden goodies;" the first prize was won by Miss Edith Hitchens, the second by Mrs. Verne Hull.

Refreshments in two courses were served and a good offering was taken. The society will meet next month with Mrs. M. O. Petefish on East Capitol street.

Harry Montgomery was in our town one day last week.

Karl Hauch came down from Jacksonville Friday, to take some pictures in and around Literberry.

Mrs. John Berry came out from Jacksonville Wednesday to be present at the M. E. Aid society, of which she is a member.

F. B. Henderson of Arcadia was doing business here Thursday.

We came near having a wedding in our midst last Thursday. Dot McFarland of Virginia came down and captured one of the prettiest girls in Literberry, taking her to Jacksonville where they were married, returning there where they spent the remainder of the week with friends, returning to Virginia Sunday evening where they will begin housekeeping. They have many friends in and around Literberry, who wish for them all in life that is good, happy and prosperous. Mr. McFarland is foreman of a section on the C. P. & St. L., railroad and is a young man well thought of and in good standing. Miss Roach is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Roach and her many friends speak highly of her.

Mrs. C. A. Beavers of "The Zephyrs" on East Capitol street is the proud possessor of new Packard piano, which came in Saturday morning.

Fred Henderson, wife and daughter Mabel, arrived from Florida on the 3 o'clock train Saturday. They have been sojourning at Kissimmee, Florida for two months, for the benefit of Mrs. Henderson's health, who is much improved and has grown fleshier and looks well. They are not booming the south to any great extent, and we imagine the reason of this is, they were homesick to see the black mud, the black hogs, and smiling faces of friends in Illinois, so that they forgot to take in the full benefit of the land of sunshine and oranges.

Mrs. W. E. Murray and Mrs. M. M. Crum, went to Jacksonville Saturday and forgot to come home. We missed them at Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Daniels have their house painted and papered and it looks very nice indeed, they will occupy it this week.

Talk about wolf hunting. You should hear our boys talk. They have a full grown vicious looking carcus to talk over too. A wolf had been sighted the first of the week, but the boys were too busy to go after him until Saturday night, when they procured a pack of hounds and went bravely on the war path, with banners proudly flying and their motto was victory or death. We will cut the story short by saying they captured Mr. Wolf without any trouble; for they found him hung in a wire fence, so near dead that the poor fellow thought it a great kindness to him when they knocked him in the head, and another wolf chase is recorded in the Literberry history of thrilling events.

WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

STRONG TONE PREVADES THE DEALINGS IN STOCKS

Broad Upward Movement Developes in Tuesday's Stock Market.

New York, March 17.—A stronger tone prevaded the dealings in stocks today. When trading began there was nothing in the narrow, uncertain fluctuations to indicate that the market would break away from the monotony of recent colorless sessions. During the day, however, there was a broad upward movement. Gains of 1 to 2 points were attained by many representative issues.

Many Bullish Rumors.

The street was filled with bullish rumors, most of them obviously without authenic basis. Two of these rumors, which found widest circulation were to the effect that a decision in the railroad rate case, favorable to the roads would be announced shortly and that an important change for the better in the Mexican situation was at hand.

New Haven Weak at Opening.

New Haven was weak at the opening but rose three points from its low price on President Wilson's intimation that satisfactory progress was being made toward settlement.

Copper Shares Benefit.

Copper shares were benefitted by the rise in the metal market and reports of increased local honsumption.

STOMACH SUFFERERS! READ THIS

So many stomach sufferers have been benefited by a simple prescription of vegetable oils which cured a Chicago druggist of chronic stomach liver and intestinal trouble of years' standing that we want you surely to try this remedy. It is known as Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. One dose will convince you. It usually gives wonderful relief within 24 hours—even in the most stubborn cases. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy is now sold here by Armstrong's drug store.—Adv.

RAIN IN KANSAS FAILS TO RELIEVE DRY WEATHER SCARE

Scare Regarding Wheat is Not Relieved by Showers in Parts of Sunflower State—Corn Closes at Slight Gain.

Chicago, March 17.—Sprinkles of rain over northern and eastern Kansas failed today to relieve except in a transient manner the fear of a dry weather scare regarding wheat. The market closed firm at a range varying from ¾@⅞c off to a shade advance.

Corn Finishes at Gain.

Corn finished with a gain of ¾@⅞c to ⅞c, oats the same as last night and provisions unchanged to 2½@5c up.

New crop futures developed a noticeable tendency to be independent of the May delivery of wheat. The nearby month was under much greater pressure.

Corn Market Rallies.

In corn the rapid depletion of western stocks led to a rally. The market at first had been easy as a result of favorable crop reports from Argentina.

Oats were held down because of large primary receipts and owing to a heavy movement from Winnipeg to the east.

Trade in Provisions is Light.

Improved support from commission houses put a little backbone into provisions. Trade as a whole, however, was light.

MARKET LETTERS.

Chicago Live Stock Market.

Oliver S. Green, with Walter Bros., U. S. Stock Yards, Chicago, reports the estimated receipts for Monday, March 16:

Cattle, 18,000.
Hogs—52,000.
Sheep—25,000.

Early estimates 17,000 cattle and 54,000 hogs, but notwithstanding the short run, barring a few choice grades, the market was extremely dull and 10c lower. Last week's storms east was the main factor causing the depression. This week too warm all over the country and a poor outlet for beef. No prime heavy beeves reported. Two car loads averaging respectively 1446 and 1398 pounds, made $9.35, and top for the day and less than 20 loads handy to good weights, $9.00 to $9.30. The quality and flesh was lacking and "acres" of cattle shorn feds, 8c and below. Generally 25 to 40c below a week ago. The bulk of good to choice steers, $8.50 to $8.85 and right decent to good short feds, $8.00 to $8.40, with many lots $7.75 to $8.00 and tailings, $7.25 and below. Butcher stuff generally 10c lower and cuts of 40 to 50c from a week ago in evidence.

Fat cows, $5.10 to $7.50.
Heifers, $5.20 to $8.25.

Bulls weak and lower. Calves 50 to 75c off from same time last week.

Dull feeder stocker case; choice steady, with dull close last week. Others weak to 10c lower.

Bulls $5.50 to $7.40.

Canners and cutters, $3.75 to $5.05.

Common heavy calves to good vealers, $5.75 to $9.00.

Choice to prime, $9.25 to $10.00.

Inferior stockers to good feeders, $5.50 to $7.40.

Choice to selected light to good weights, $7.50 to $7.85.

Hogs generally 10c lower than Saturday, with a top of $8.85.

Mixed packing, $8.55 to $8.20.

Medium and butchers, $8.70 to $8.75.

Poor to good heavy packing, $8.45 to $8.67½.

Rough heavy packing, $8.10 to $8.40.

Select packing and shipping, $8.70 to $8.85.

Light weights, $8.60 to $8.75.

Pigs and throw-outs, $2.75 to $9.35.

Demand for sheep and lambs poor. Sheep and quality about steady with last week's close. Lambs weak to 10c lower.

Native ewes, $4.00 to $6.00.

Native wethers, $6.00 to $6.50.

Western wethers, $5.35 to $6.15

Native lambs, $6.00 to $7.65.

Western lambs, $6.25 to $7.75.

Colorado lambs, $7.00 to $7.85

Montana feeding lambs, $6.80 to $7.00.

Kansas City Market.

Kansas City Stock Yards, March 16.—Trade in stockers and feeders was disappointing last week, flattening out after Wednesday, and leaving 7,000 stale cattle in the yards at the end of the week. Purchases of stockers ranged from $7.50 to $8.05, a few lots of high bred yearlings up to $8.40, feeders at $7.40 to $8.00. A year ago good to choice stockers and feeders sold at $8.00 to $8.40. Dealers look for some improvement, as receipts are not as heavy as formerly, and grass is near. Cattle receipts today are 11,000, market steady to 10c lower, stockers and feeders weak. A feature recently is a strong demand for stock cows and heifers, the demand coming from all points from Iowa to Oklahoma. The fact that more feed is being grown in the range country each year is causing more cattle to be fattened in the range country during the winter. This leaves fewer stockers and feeders for the corn belt, as not only are many cattle fattened in the range leaves fewer stockers and feeders country during the winter, but cattle come out in good flesh that are not finished, and a larger percentage get in condition for killers during the summer. This is a condition that will have a greater effect in the future, and some big Missouri feeders are shaping their efforts in the direction of raising their own feeding cattle.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF HAIR STOPS FALLING

Grils! Try This! Makes Hair Thick, Glossy, Fluffy, Beautiful—No More Itching Scalp.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

DR. LUCCOCK EMPHASIZES PLACE THE CHURCH SHOULD HAVE

Community Has Right to Expect it to Be Vehicle of Righteousness—Forgetting Self in Service Is Highest Good.

Another large audience was present at State Street church last night for the union service held by State Street and Westminster churches. Dr. Luccock in his sermon laid great stress upon the fact that world has a right to expect that the church will be a vehicle of righteousness in the community. The church member, too, he pointed out, should also be such a vehicle and he declared it to be the greatest business of Christians to bring others into the kingdom whether they were persons outside the church of those inside who had somehow fallen away from Christian activity.

"When I was a young minister," he said, "the church I was serving was barely organized and the community offered a not very flattering prospect. There was a saintly woman who belonged to my congregation and some one asked about me and wondered if I would succeed in the work and if the little church would live. Her answer was, 'Yes, the church will live if the minister loses himself,' and so it truly is in the Christian life if we make the most of it we must lose ourselves in service for the Master."

The services are proving of a very helpful kind and the simple, gospel directness of the speaker gives his utterances a marked impressiveness.

GREAT FEATURE AT THE MAJESTIC TODAY.

Edwin August will appear in the powerful drama "Into the Lion's Pit" at Luttrell's Majestic theatre today. It is a Powers film in two great reels and the many patrons of the Majestic will see something worth while and of absorbing interest.

Of the screen stars today there are none who excell or even approach Edwin August in producing and playing the costume—poetic play. Garbed in the picturesque dress of the Roman gladiator, citizen or soldier with the bare arms, flashing armor, draped and flowing silks and satins, he is the perfect type of what we are wont to imagine was the ancient manhood.

The story is of ancient Rome, set at the time when the dawning Christianity drove the Gods and Olympus to their final resting place. Besides playing the lead role in the play, Mr. August has written and produced it. He has opened his play with Marius, a Patrician (played by himself), arriving in Rome from his victorious wars in Gaul. It is the awakening of love in this soldier's breast for a simple Christian mother, the awful danger this woman is exposed to when she is thrown to the lions, and the repentance and conversion of Marius that furnishes the motives for the stirring action.

Special settings were built in the open at the Universal City in California for many of the scenes. Money was spent lavishly to make the picture conform perfectly to historical detail—to suggest the splendor, ease and grandeur that existed at the time in the Roman capital. A genuine pit, fifteen feet deep, was constructed along unique lines to contain the lions used in the climax.

It is Mr. August, as Marius, who goes into the lions' pit, taking his life into his hands, as it were, to save the girl, who has been brutally left to die by Marius's rival.

When Marius arrives the populace arise as one man to honor him, but above all others, Dacia, his Pagan mistress, pays him greatest homage. However, the happiness of Marius and Dacia is shortlived. They quarrel and Dacia leans to Cassius, who is envious of Marius and his friend in name only. The further developments are of great interest.

WILL RETURN HOME.

A telegram was received yesterday by Walter Ayers from his daughter, Miss Margaret, who is attending Wellesley, telling of the disastrous fire which destroyed the dormitory of the institution and of the girls' narrow escape. Miss Ayers stated that she would come home until school started again, which would be April 7. The account of the fire will be noted in another column of this morning's paper.

CAMPAIGNING FOR JUDGE BALDWIN.

Judge E. P. Brockhouse and Assistant States Attorney T. F. Smith went to Woodson last night to interview voters in behalf of Judge Baldwin's candidacy for the circuit bench. At Murrayville County Clerk Boruff and William E. Thomson were busy on a like errand and a great many democrats were seen. There is every indication that Judge Baldwin will get a heavy vote in these precincts as the Democrats realize not only that their candidate is qualified for the position but that it is vastly important that they should get out March 24th and nominate a Morgan county man.

Charming suit, tailored and dress hats will be shown at our opening.

WILL COMPLETE APPOINTMENT OF CONVENTION COMMITTEES

Preliminary Arrangements for Teachers' Gathering to be Finnished This Afternoon—High School Notes.

The managing committee for the coming State Teachers' association convention will meet this afternoon at 3:30 in the office of Superintendent W. A. Gore for the completion of preliminary plans on arrangements and for the appointing of sub-committees as follows: for the meeting of trains, guide, baggage and checking, signs and decorations, ushering, journalistic and a student committee to assist the teachers at headquarters. Decision will be made also at this meeting with regard to a headquarters for registration, etc., and a choice will be made of either the high school building, the Y. M. C. A., or one of the churches. The managing committee consists of the heads of the various ward schools and the assistant principal of the high school.

With 2,000 teachers or more assembled in the city in one of the largest conventions Jacksonville has seen, there will be a great amount of work for the local committees in charge and their time will be well filled from now until the convention of the central division of the State Teachers' association gather here in annual session, March 27-28. One of the big tasks will be the finding of rooms for each of the teachers and the assigning of each visitor to his quarters. The meals during the convention will be served by the different churches.

High School Happenings.

Richard Reynolds has been elected captain of the basketball team. He received four votes while his nearest opponent, Dale Boxell, received three and Allen Smith received one.

The question of sweaters will come up again today at noon at a meeting of the football and basketball boys. Vice-president J. H. Newlon of Decatur, vice-president of the State High School Athletic association, held that the proposal to play a basketball game to secure funds for the purchase of sweaters would be contrary to the rules of the association. The teachcers of the local high school seem to think that the school cannot secure sweaters in this way without being liable to suspension from the associatioan.

Indications are good for the annual concert given by the musical organization of the high school under the direction of Miss Ailsie Goodrick. This concert will be held Thursday evening as is the usual custom an account of the Irish players Friday evening.

The boys who were suspended last week for leaving the building without permission are back in school. In each case the parents of the students were consulted and agreement was made for better conduct in the future.

Miss Mildred Gibbs of the Lynnville neighborhood and Miss Ruth and Miss Edna Hackett of South Jacksonville are among those detained at home by illness.

Miss Kuechler and Miss Thornborrow have received filing cabinents for their deficient student records and the other teachers are expected to receive similar cabinents soon. By this plan, account will be kept of students deficient in any subject and warning will be given at least two weeks before the time of issuing the monthly grades.

An interesting report was made by Prof. Morrison Monday of the high school methods in use at Decatur. They have there an elastic system of credits. A student with a mark above 95 per cent for a year receives 1.1 credits, from 85 to 94, 1 credit and from 75 to 84 .9 credit. There is a rule also that an "E" student may take 23 hours and more with special permission. A good student can in this way graduate from the full course in three years and a half instead of four.

Your money will bring more value here today than in any other place in town.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

One of the delightful student functions of the Woman's college was the party given Monday evening, by the seniors to the juniors. The gathering was held in the society rooms, which were prettily decorated for the occasion. Several musical numbers afforded entertainment for the evening and Miss Geneva Upp gave a chalk talk, showing cartoons of the various juniors and teachers. Some dainty refreshments were served.

The Irish play, "Arrah-Na Pegue" by Dion Bouccicault was presented last night by students of the expression department of the Woman's college. Following the play, the college specials served refreshments in the Tea Cup Inn, which netted a neat sum.

Mrs. Mary A. Gunn of Murrayville held an old fashioned rag tacking at her home last evening. Over 60 neighbors and friends were present, and aside from the work done a most enjoyable time was spent. Mrs. Gunn was assisted in serving some splendid refreshments by Miss May Richards.

ASKS THAT EASTERN RAILROADS BE ALLOWED FREIGHT INCREASE

CHICAGO, March 17.—That the eastern railways be permitted to put into effect at once the five per cent increase in freight rates for which they have asked the interstate commerce commission pending the investigation of the case was the plea of Daniel Williard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad in a statement to the Railway Gazette.

"The railroads have introduced testimony which we believe should convince the commission that our financial necessities are real, immediate and pressing," he declared.

DRESSMAKERS STRIKE.

New York, March 17.—Of about 5,000 members of the misses and children's dressmakers union, mostly women, who were reported at the point of striking, nearly 2,000 left their employment today.

About 200 of the smaller manufacturers are affected. After the walkout the strikers held several meetings at their union headquarters where the situation was discussed. No disorder resulted.

KING'S HEALTH IS POOR.

Stockholm, Sweden, March 17.—The condition of health of King Gustav is causing anxiety in court circles here. His Majesty found it necessary to curtail his stay in the country where he went from Stockholm a few days ago. He returned hurriedly to the capital today.

MORTUARY

Shinn.

Friends in the city have received word of the death of J. A. Shinn, who passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. R. Fisher at Springfield, Mo., last Friday. He had been ill since last summer following an attack of paralysis. He was 72 years of age, a veteran of the civil war and a member of the Modern Woodmen.

For a great many years Mr. Shinn lived in Jacksonville, holding the position of engineer at the State School for the Blind. His daughter, Miss Minnie Shinn, now Mrs. Fisher, made her home here a number of years after her parents left and moved to Pittsfield. From there they moved to Grafton, Ill.

Mrs. Shinn passed away three months ago and ever since her death the husband grew gradually weaker. He was a man of unusual amiableness, fine Christian spirit and conversant on the leading topics of the day.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. S. R. Fisher of Springfield, Mo., Mrs. O. W. Jones of Newburg, Mo., and one son, Herbert S. Shinn of Pittsfield, Ill.

Winter.

Patrick Winter of Murrayville died in St. Vincent's home, Quincy, Monday evening at 10 o'clock after an illness of four days. Mr. Winter was 78 years of age and had been in failing health. The immediate cause of death was an attack of lagrippe. The remains were shipped to Winchester for burial.

Mr. Winter was born in County Fernand, Ireland and was married to Catherine Dwire, who preceded him in death. He was a member of the Catholic church of Murrayville and was a man well respected in his community. He leaves two sons: Thomas and David Winter of Murrayville and two daughters, Mrs. Oscar Lampman of Montrose, Colo., and Mrs. Susan Scholz of Pueblo, Colo. He leaves also 12 grandchildren.

FUNERALS

Rimbey.

The funeral of Mrs. Nancy Rimbey was held from the family residence in Murrayville Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. Clark Summerfield of Manchester officiating, assisted by Rev. S. H. McCullen. Music was given by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wright, Mrs. C. S. McCullom and George Coultas. The beautiful flowers were cared for by Misses Gladys Osborne, Edra Sorrells and Golden and Meda Blakeman.

The remains were laid to rest in the Rimbey cemetery and the bearers were Beecher Rimbey, Henry Osborne, William Rousey, William Rimbey and Jacob Rimbey.

A novel feature of the Kangaroo club dance Tuesday evening at the Peacock Inn was the demonstration by T. Joy and Bennett, performers at the Grand, of three of the latest dances, the one step, the hesitation waltz and the Argentine tango. The dance at the Inn Tuesday was one of the most successful and best attended yet given by the club and much credit is due the committee in charge. Randall's orchestra furnished the music. For the feature dance a peculiar plan was adopted for the selection of partners. Each gentleman drew an evelope and each lady a carnation with a number attached, the young people matching these to securue partners for this the dance.

The Kangaroo club is planning a formal to be held in two or three weeks which will be anticipated as one of the big social events of the season.

WILL ISSUE $500,000 IN RECEIVER'S CERTIFICATES

W. E. Crane Announces Policy to Be Pursued With Reference to Southern Traction Company.

As mentioned recently W. E. Crane has been appointed operating receiver for the Southern Traction Company of Illinois. Mr. Crane is with the other receivers, now taking the necessary steps to get the road into operation and it is expected that wheels can be set moving within a comparatively short time.

The St. Louis Times has the following with reference to contemplated action in the issuance of $500,000 of receiver's certificates:

"Wilber E. Crane, who has been appointed by the Federal Court at Danville, Ill., operating receiver for the Southern Traction Company of Illinois, said Saturday the company was awiting the action of the joint house and council committee to draft an ordinance reducing the l[illegible] of the company's franchise over the downtown loop from the Free Bridge to 25 years, before making any recommendation to the Federal Court. The receivers were authorized Friday to issue $500,000 of certificates.

"As soon as the draft of this ordinance is drawn up Crane said, he would call a meeting of the three receivers of the road, consisting of ormer United States Senator William Lorimer of Chicago, John A. Hamilton of Marisso, Ill., and himself, who would pass upon the acceptance of the ordinance before recommending its endorsement to Federal Judge Francis M. Wright of Danville.

"As soon as we are able to dispose of the $500,000 of receivers' certificates," Crane said, "we will begin operation from Belleville to East St. Louis. I hope to dispose of these certificates in St. Louis, but that is not yet settled.

Reduction in Franchise Assured.

"That the loop franchise of the Southern Traction Company shall be reduced from 50 to 25 years. Some member of the Municipal Assembly's committee wanted to know whether we would agree to sell the loop to the city if the franchise was reduced. I told them that we would sell the loop to the city within 10 days after the franchise was granted, if the city wanted to buy it.

"I have lived in St. Louis several years, and I know the temper of its citizens regarding this Southern Traction franchise, and I believe that its reduction would clear up the situation. The Southern Traction Company has no franchise over the Free Bridge."

"Crane said his company already was equipped with engines and coal cars and would begin hauling coal as soon as the receivers' certificates were disposed of. The company has a connection with the Terminal Railroad Association's tracks in the Denverside Yards in East St. Louis, Crane said. Sufficient electric cars, he said, probably would be rented to begin passenger service within three weeks.

"Crane lives in St. Louis and in vice president of the St. Louis, El Reno & Western Railroad.

MURRAYVILLE TO ORGANIZE UNDER GENERAL LAWS

Citizens Discover That Village Election Not Valid Because Commission Form of Government Was Not Submitted.

The village of Murrayville had an election Tuesday to determine whether the town should be organized under the general law or under the commission form of government. commission form of government. The the general law by a vote of 38 to 1; the commission question received a vote of 10 for and 29 against. No women voted.

Like Concord, the people of Murrayville discovered that they, too, had to submit the commission question, which they failed to do at the last election, which necessitated the voting of yesterday. Those who now expect to appear on the ticket which will be voted on at the April election will have to get out a petition. Murrayville citizens voted against the commission form of government because they thought it too expensive for a town of that size. There were only 39 votes cast all together, which was light, the entire vote being 125. The women did not take part in the election.

The judges yesterday were E. M. Bush, W. O. Beadles, J. P. Warcup. The present officers of the village are: President, J. L. Wyatt; clerk, N. C. Carlson; trustees, W. A. Wesner, J. T. Warcup, J. E. Thompson and W. T. Cook.

See the Tango and the other late dances at the Grand opera house tonight. Pictures and vaudeville, 5 and 10 cents.

SUNDAY SCHOOL OFFICERS AND TEACHERS MEET.

The monthly meeting and supper of the teachers and officers of the First Baptist church Sunday school, was held Tuesday evening in the parlors of the church, with an excellent attendance. Much enthusiasm was manifested and plans were discussed for the advancement of the school.

An address was made by Dean F. S. Hayden of Illinois college, who spoke on the advantages of bible study and the pedagogics of Sunday school teaching. There were about forty teachers and officers present at the supper. The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Joseph Jackson, Mrs. Joseph Smith and Mrs. R. C. Henley. Carl Weber, superintendent of the Sunday school presided.
